The No-Shave November Tally!

Tribal Public Safety Director Rob Medacco reports that the fund-raiser in November raised over $1200.00! With the money, the officers purchased 36 pairs of winter boots for kids that wouldn't be able to afford them. With the additional funds they are going to purchase food for Elders in the community. Those foods will be delivered this week and it is meant to help as some of the elders will not be getting their hot lunches due to the government holiday closure.

If you know someone in need of boots or an Elder in need of food, please contact Director Medacco via email at rmedacco@lrboi-nsn.gov. These boots and food are meant for the truly needy so please respect that.

Merry Christmas from Tribal Public Safety!

“Someone must speak for them. I do not see a delegation for the four-footed. I see no seat for eagles. We forget and we consider ourselves superior, but we are after all a mere part of the Creation.” Oren Lyons, Onondaga

Whenever we make decisions, we need to look around to see who would be affected. If we change the course of a river, who, what will be affected? If we put poison on the gardens, who, what will be affected? If we cut the trees and too many are cut, who, what will be affected? We need to become aware of the consequences of our actions. We need to pay attention to our thoughts. We are accountable to our children to leave the Earth in good shape.

My Creator, help me make right decisions.
